

On the occasion of the publication of his last edited volume, Realizing Utopia. The Future of International Law, we are delighted to invite you to a Round Table on:

ANTONIO CASSESE'S REALISTIC UTOPIA

23 April 2012, 6-8 pm

UniMail, Boulevard du Pont d'Arve 40, MR 280

With the participation of Andrew Clapham, Luigi Condorelli, Malcom Evans, Pierre-Marie Dupuy, Paola Gaeta, Philippe Sands, and Salvatore Zappalà.

The Round Table will provide the opportunity to pay tribute to Antonio Cassese and his many professional achievements, with a special exhibition, kindly loaned by the Special Tribunal for Lebanon and the Council of Europe.

At this event the Antonio Cassese Initiative for Justice, Peace and Humanity will be launched.

At the end of the Round Table, we will felicitate the winner of the Journal of International Criminal Justice Prize (2011), Ms Valentina Spiga, for her paper on: Non-Retroactivity of Criminal Law: a New Chapter in the Hissène Habré Saga.

Please kindly let us know if you are able to attend by registering at:
<http://uzh.moreganize.ch/bLOCmXZXGwt>

The event and the prize-giving ceremony will be in English and French without translation.