

CAS

Certificat de formation continue
Certificate of Advanced Studies

Humanitarian Interpreting

September 2015 | August 2016

O N L I N E C O U R S E

UNIVERSITÉ
DE GENÈVE

An online course designed for field interpreters, interpreters working for humanitarian organizations and members of the diaspora hoping to utilize their language and cultural skills

This course is designed to allow humanitarian field interpreters to:

- ▶ Acquire higher-level skills in interpreting
- ▶ Meet the requirements of a variety of challenging humanitarian contexts
- ▶ Plan and organize interpreting services in the field

5 modules | 100% online course | 300h (approx.) | 11 ECTS

Interpreting Skills • Interpreting Ethics • Core Skills for Humanitarian Interpreters • International Humanitarian Law for Humanitarian Interpreters • A specific module relevant to the organization(s) you work for (ICRC, UNHCR, UN, MSF, etc.)

Content provided by InZone and InZone's partner organizations including DisasterReady.org, the ICRC and UNHCR

Director: Barbara Moser-Mercer, Faculty of Translation and Interpreting, University of Geneva; Director, InZone

Contact: inzone@unige.ch

Information: www.unige.ch/formcont/CAShumanitarianinterpreting