

| | |
|---------------|---|
| 10.15-10.45 | Welcome and coffee (Uni Bastions, room B101) |
| 10.45 -11.15 | Eva Waltermann (University of Geneva) Teachers' representations of language: How linguistic are they? |
| 11.15 -11.45 | Simone Pfenninger (University of Zurich) Searching for the egg of Columbus: On the effectiveness of early foreign language instruction in a multilingual state |
| 11.45 -12.15 | Alesia Rochat (University of Lausanne) Intertextuality as a text-constituting mechanism of Facebook posts in political discourse |
| 12.15 - 13.45 | Lunch (Cafeteria, Uni Dufour) |
| 13.45 -14.15 | Daniela Landert (University of Zurich) Identifying stance expressions in Early Modern English: Challenges and methodological innovations in historical corpus pragmatics |
| 14.15 -14.45 | Florent Perek (University of Basel) Distributional semantic plots: A data-driven approach to recent change in syntactic productivity |
| 14.45 -15.15 | David Correia Saavedra (University of Neuchâtel) Why are grammatical elements more evenly dispersed than lexical elements? |
| 15.15-15.45 | Coffee Break |
| 15.45 -16.15 | Davis Ozols (University of Fribourg) Repetition as a context selection constraint: a study in the cognitive underpinnings of persuasion |
| 16.15 -16.45 | Steve Oswald (University of Fribourg) On the rhetorical advantages of humorous fallacies: A cognitive pragmatic proposal |
| 17.00 | Business meeting |
| from 18.00 | Dinner |

Directions from the Station

In front of the main station (Gare Cornavin), take tram 15 (direction: Palettes) or tram 18 (direction: Carouge (Rondeau)) to the Plainpalais stop (ca. 10 minutes). From the Rond Point de Plainpalais, walk up the Rue de l'Université to Uni Bastions (5, rue de Candolle). The meeting will be held in room B101 (1st floor).

