workshop on
EVIDENCE AND
EXPLANATION
Geneva, April 25 - 26, 2012

Wednesday, April 25, 2012 (Uni Mail, MR040)
14:30 - 16:00 Juan Comesaña (University of Arizona), "Neo-Rationalism and the Problem of Easy Knowledge"
16:15 - 17:45 Raphael Scholl (University of Bern), "IBE in the Catch-22"

Thursday, April 26, 2012
(Morning - B216 (Uni Bastions 2nd floor), Afternoon - MS 050 (Uni Mail))
9:15 - 10:45 Marcel Weber (University of Geneva), "Is causal inference enough for biology or do we also need IBE?"
11:00 - 12:30 Alexander Bird (University of Bristol), "Evidence and Inference"
14:30 - 16:00 Kevin Mulligan (University of Geneva), "Reasons, "because" and mental operations"

Pre-workshop event: Tuesday, April 24, 2012
16:00 - 18:00 Episteme group Round-table with Juan Comesaña. Discussions centred on his recent work (for more information, please contact Arturs Logins).

The workshop is organized by Arturs Logins (Arturs.Logins@unige.ch) and EPISTEME within the FNS project "Knowledge, Evidence and Practice".