ADMISSION CONDITIONS

A Bachelor of Arts with at least 60 credits in the given discipline, or an equivalent degree. Additional courses may be required depending on prior studies.

Master's Programme

PHILOSOPHY

At Master's level, the Department of Philosophy offers a choice between a generalist course (Master's degree 90 credits) and a specialised course (Master's degree 120 credits) in contemporary philosophy, ancient and medieval philosophy or the philosophy of science. As part of the generalist programme, the Department offers a range of elective courses covering many areas of systematic philosophy and many periods in the history of philosophy. Specialized training follows on from generalist training, with the addition of specific courses.

MOBILITY

Master's students are encouraged to go on exchange, if possible for a single semester, given the duration of the programme. Students may go on exchange regardless of how many credits they have completed at the Faculty. Under regulations, students may earn no more than 24 credits (2 modules) while on exchange. The dissertation cannot be substituted.

PROFESSIONAL PROSPECTS

Unlike other fields of study, Arts degrees are not geared toward a specific career and graduates generally need to gain additional experience on the job.

Job opportunities may be found in the following areas: teaching, journalism, radio, television, publishing, libraries, documentation centres, archives, bookshops, museums, heritage protection organisations, international organisations, diplomacy, private companies, banks, administration, staff management, tourism, public relations, cultural activities, art dealerships, galleries, and literary, linguistic or philosophical research and writing, etc.

TUITION FEES

500 CHF per semester
