

A DECADE OF CHILDREN'S RIGHTS STUDIES IN GENEVA REFLECTIONS AND FUTURE PROSPECTS

Friday 7 November 2025 | 16:15

University of Geneva, Bâtiment des Philosophes, Room 201

REGISTER HERE ►

© Yves Leresche

CENTRE FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS STUDIES

UNIVERSITÉ DE GENÈVE

16:15 WELCOME ADDRESS

Martine Collart, Vice-Rector, University of Geneva

Karl Hanson, Director, Centre for Children's Rights Studies

16:30 10 QUESTIONS ON INTERDISCIPLINARY TEACHING AND RESEARCH IN ACADEMIA

Frédéric Darbellay, Vice-Director, Centre for Children's Rights Studies

16:45 CONNECTING KNOWLEDGE, EXPLORING TRAJECTORIES AND POSSIBILITIES

Round table discussion reflecting on

- Developments and future prospects of children's rights studies
- The role of interdisciplinary centres in shaping the academic landscape
- Interdisciplinarity and its prospects for the future of universities

Moderator:

Karl Hanson, Director, Centre for Children's Rights Studies

Participants:

Tatek Abebe, Childhood Studies, Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway

Marieke Hopman, Children's Rights Research group, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

Jonathan Joseffson, Department of Child Studies, Linköping University, Sweden

Ton Liefwaard, Department of Child Law and Health Law, Leiden University, The Netherlands

18:00 10TH ANNIVERSARY RECEPTION