

From Emotion to Action: The Affective Capital of Oppressed Groups

21-22 March 2024

University of Geneva, Campus Biotech, Room H8-01-D

Organizers: Sandra Penić & Emanuela Ceva,
 Department of Political Science and International relations and the Swiss Centre for Affective Sciences, University of Geneva

Compulsory registration at:

<https://formulaire.unige.ch/cisa/survey/index.php/379197?lang=en>

| Day 1 (21.03.24) | | |
|-------------------------|--|--|
| 08:45-09:00 | Sandra Penić & Emanuela Ceva | Welcome & introduction |
| 09:00-10:00 | Arin Ayanian, Bielefeld University, Germany | Emotions as micro-mobilization processes underlying collective action in repressive contexts: Current status and research recommendations for ways forward |
| 10:00-11:00 | Marco Giugni, UNIGE, and Maria Grasso, Queen Mary University of London, UK | Emotions and Political Action Amongst Marginalised Groups in Europe |
| 11:00-11:30 | Break | |
| 11:30-12:30 | Özden Melis Uluğ, Sussex University, UK | The role of emotions in collective action participation in democratic vs authoritarian contexts: A review of 30 years of research. |
| 12:30-13:30 | Lunch | |
| 13:30-14:30 | Mai Albzour, Birzeit University, Palestine | Are negative emotions the problem? The irony of harmony among the oppressed groups |
| 14:30-15:30 | Sandra Penić, UNIGE | How the geography of repression shape emotions and collective action preferences in the Occupied Palestinian Territories |
| 15:30-16:00 | Break | |
| 16:00-17:00 | Patricia Cernadas Curotto, UNIGE | Empathy and Compassion in Conflict: emerging beneficial effects in violent contexts |
| 17:00-19:00 | Aperitif | |
| Day 2 (22.03.24) | | |
| 09:00-10:00 | Simon Hug, UNIGE | Exposure to violence, cooperative behavior and emotions |
| 10:00-11:00 | Yashpal Jogdand, IIT Delhi, India | Sun is also untouchable! The Appraisal, Experience and Responses to Humiliation among Dalits in India |
| 11:00-11:30 | Break | |
| 11:30-12:30 | Benjamin Matheson, University of Bern | Collective Guilt and Oppressed Groups |
| 12:30-13:30 | Lunch | |
| 13:30-14:30 | Rim Saab, Sussex University, UK | What emotions did protesters feel at the onset of the October 17 Lebanese uprising? Insights from live interviews |
| 14:30-15:30 | General discussion and conclusion | |