

Conference « Taxation and philanthropy »

Organised by the Geneva Centre for Philanthropy, University of Geneva
25-27 November 2020
Geneva, Switzerland

Programme

The Conference is an online event

Time indicated is Swiss time

All events are open to the public. More details are communicated on the Conference website.

DAY 1 - 25 November 2020

WORKSHOP 1

1pm – 3pm: Are tax incentives for philanthropy justified?

DAY 2 - 26 November 2020

JUNIORS' EVENT

11am – 1.30pm: Workshop for junior scholars

WORKSHOP 3

2pm – 3.30pm: Cross-border philanthropy and tax barriers: should they be eliminated?

PUBLIC CONFERENCE

6.15pm: Welcome by Prof. Yves Flückiger, Rector of the University
Prize ceremony for the best papers, Fondation Lombard Odier Prize for Academic Excellence in Philanthropy

Awarded by Mr. Patrick Odier, Chairman of Fondation Lombard Odier, Chairman of the Jury and Dr. Maximilian Martin, Secretary-General of Fondation Lombard Odier

6.30pm: Keynote speech by Mr. Pascal Saint-Amans, Director of the Centre for Tax Policy and Administration, OECD

Q&A session moderated by Prof. Henry Peter, Head of the GCP, and Dr. Giedre Lideikyte Huber, Senior Research Associate (GCP)

7.30pm: Closing by Prof. Yves Flückiger, Rector of the University

DAY 3 - 27 November 2020

WORKSHOPS 4 and 2

1pm – 3pm: Workshop 4: What is the role of tax incentives in corporate philanthropy and social entrepreneurship?

4pm – 6pm: Workshop 2: Which types of tax incentives for philanthropic activities are conceivable and what is their respective efficiency?

End of the Conference

Geneva, 11 November 2020