

GENEVA TALKS ON FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN AFRICA

WITHIN THE FNS PROJECT ON “FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN AFRICA: GAINING DEVELOPMENT MOMENTUM” (UNIVERSITIES OF GENEVA AND LAUSANNE)

IMPLICATIONS OF A REGIONAL APPROACH TO THE REGULATION OF FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN SOUTHERN AND EASTERN AFRICA: THE COMESA AND SADC EXPERIENCE

University of Geneva – Wednesday 7 October 2015

14h30 – 16h30 - Room 3389

Speakers

Rukia Baruti

Mustaqeem de Gama

Hamed El-Kady

Format: Each speaker will present informally for about 20 mins. Participants will then exchange their views and engage in a dialogue with a small audience

Geneva Talks on Foreign Investment in Africa

7 October 2015

University of Geneva, Faculty of Law, 40 Bd. du Pont d'Arve, Room 3389

Attendance is free, but places are limited.

Please register at Rukia.Baruti@unige.ch by no later than 1 October 2015

Wednesday 7 October 2015

14h30 Sandwich Lunch

15h00 Introduction

Rukia Baruti, University of Geneva

15h15 Implications of a Regional Approach to the Regulation of Foreign Investment

Hamid El-Kady, UNCTAD

15h35 *Implications of a Regional Approach to the Regulation of Foreign Investment:
The SADC and COMESA Experience*

Mustaqeem de Gama, South Africa Department of Trade and Industry

15h55 Discussion

16h30 Close