

On the occasion of the ACF International Report Launch
‘The Role of Humanitarian Assistance in the Context of Forcible Transfer’

You are cordially invited to attend an event, organized jointly by ACF International and the Department of International Law and International Organization of the University of Geneva,

Forcible Transfers and Humanitarian Assistance in a Coercive Environment

Room R280 of Uni Mail, Blvd du Pont d’Arve 40, Geneva
Tuesday, 21 October 2014, 12:15-13:45

Speakers:

H.E. Ibrahim Khraishi, Ambassador of the State of Palestine to the United Nations Office and other international organizations in Geneva, Greetings

Marco Sassòli, Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Geneva, ‘The rules of International Humanitarian Law on Forcible Transfers within the occupied Palestinian territory and their Humanitarian Consequences’

Guillaume Charron, Regional Analyst Middle East and North Africa, Internal Displacement Monitoring Centre (IDMC), ‘Overview of Displacement Trends in the occupied Palestinian territory’

Brona Higgins, Legal Officer, ACF International oPt Mission, ‘Presentation of report findings: The Role of Humanitarian Assistance in the Context of Forcible Transfer’

Moderator: Itay Epshtain, Legal Coordinator, ACF International oPt Mission