Resisting and Contesting Institutional Failures.
Citizens and Public Servants Perspectives

Conference of the research project EnTrust-Endogenous Institutional Trustworthiness
(PI: Emanuela Ceva, University of Geneva)

Northeastern University, College of Social Sciences and Humanities (Boston MA)
Thursday 6 - Friday 7 June 2024

Program

Thursday 6.06
12:30-13:00 Emanuela Ceva (University of Geneva)   Exogenous and Endogenous Institutional Trustworthiness. An Introduction.
13:00-14:00 Keynote talk: Kimberley Brownlee (University of British Columbia)   Why We Circle the Wagons: Social Cohesion and Institutional Failure.
14:00-15:00 Jenny Yi-Chen Wu (University of California, Los Angeles)   Is It Morally Permissible to Exploit a System that Fails You?
15:00-15:30 Break
15:30-16:30 Pascal Mowla (University of Oxford)   What Makes Nepotism Wrong?
16:30-17:30 Cheyney Ryan (University of Oxford)   Institutional Betrayal and the Politically-Correct Bystander
17:30-18:30 Patti Tamara Lenard (University of Ottawa)   Allyship and Distrust in Institutions
Friday 07.06
9:00-10:00 Michele Bocchiola (University of Geneva)   The Quest for Institutional Trust
10:00-11:00 Marta Giunta Martino (University of Geneva)   Public Servants' Duties and Expressions of Dissent
11:00-12:00 Max Emmet (University College London)   Citizens Inside the Machine: An Argument against a Special Form of Resistance by Policy Bureaucrats
12:00-13:00 Break
13:00-14:00 Candice Delmas (Northeastern University)   Toward a Public Ethic for the Prison
14:00-15:00 Eric Beerbohm (Harvard University)   Tba
15:00-15:30 Break
15:30-16:30 Keynote Talk: Erin Kelly (Tufts University)   Morally Injured Societies

This is an in-person conference. Attendance is open but requires registration. To register please send an email to Marta.Giunta@unige.ch by 15 May 2024.