Course overview

Short description

While critically reviewing the current trends and practices around leadership and people management, this executive short course aims at giving you the opportunity to ascertain the leader you are and situate your style within your preferred conceptual and practical framework.

Objectives of the course

At the end of the course, you will be able to:
- Manage and lead people according to the essential principles of diversity, inclusion and duty of care
• Adopt best practices for informed and critical decision-making
• Identify your preferred leadership style and argue your choice

Workload

Around 50 hours of work over 2.5 weeks, including:

- E-learning courses
- Live sessions
- Individual and group work: readings, videos, pool-surveys, self-tests, case study, reflexive analysis, forum discussions, etc.

Thematic structure of the course

- Sectorial leadership
- Leadership in organisations
- Partnership and collaborative leadership
- The leader
- Governance & decision-making
- Person and team management
- Stress management

Audience

- Professionals in the humanitarian, development or social sector looking to develop their competencies in leadership and people management, as well as reflect and capitalise on their experiences.
- Professionals from any other sectors (private, academic, etc) and graduate students with relevant volunteer or intern experience who wish to increase their understanding of leadership and people management in the humanitarian field.
