

E-learning Module – How can trade contribute to sustainable development?

Application Form

1. Personal information

Surname:

Name:

Sex:

Nationality:

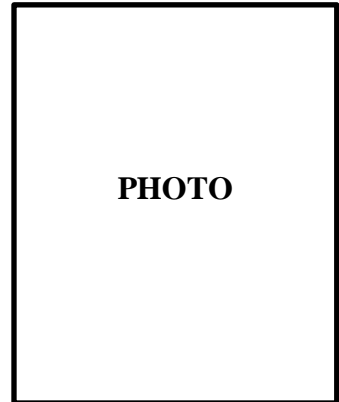

Date of birth:

Place & Country of birth:

Phone (Work & Private):

Address:

E-mail: (Work & Private):

How do you wish to be contacted?

Please send news and information concerning course topics or my studies in general to my home work e-mail address.

My e-mail addresses can be passed on to my fellow students: Yes No.

2. Education

Previous university education in Switzerland

Have you enrolled previously in a Swiss higher education institution? Yes No

If yes, please indicate your Swiss enrolment number (SIUS) or the institution you attended:

.....

Highest university qualification obtained:

Programme/course studied:

Name of the University:

Standard period of study: Total ECTS acquired:

If no ECTS grade is indicated, academic honour or average mark:

.....
Thesis topic (if given):
.....

3. Exam

Please indicate if you would like to take the exam of the E-learning Module you are applying for: Yes No

4. Scholarship application

Please indicate if you would like to apply scholarship: Yes No

Please note that you have to provide a letter of motivation if you apply for scholarship

5. How did you learn about the E-learning Module?

.....
Where would you have liked to read or hear about the E-learning module (media, events, etc.) but did not find the necessary information?
.....

6. Supporting application documents

The application must be accompanied by supporting official documents as specified below (please tick the appropriate box for all documents supplied).

The following documents are enclosed with the application file for admission:

- Completed and signed application form
- An up-to date curriculum vitae (in English) with a portrait photograph (headshot)
- Copy of passport or ID (personal details page)
- Letter of motivation/personal statement for a scholarship request demonstrating the applicant's interest in the course and her/his financial needs (in English) (max. 500 words)

7. Statement of Consent and supporting application documents

I hereby apply for admission to the E-learning Module "How can trade contribute to sustainable development?" on the basis of the statements made above.

I hereby affirm that all information contained in this application is complete and correct. I am aware that intentionally or negligently giving false information may lead to exclusion from the admissions procedure or - if discovered after enrolment - to a revocation of my admission or enrolment.

I confirm that I have discussed my participation to the module with my employer. I note that the tuition fee will be paid by: My self. My employer.

As the basis for this application, I specifically confirm my acceptance of the regulations governing admissions and the tuition fees for the module "How can trade contribute to sustainable development?" at the University of Geneva.

I will immediately notify the admission office (T4SD@unige.ch) of any change in my postal or e-mail address(es) or names. I hereby affirm that I have sufficient fluency in written and spoken English to be able to follow the course.

I note that to be officially enrolled for the E-learning Module "How can trade contribute to sustainable development?" (binding registration), I will pay the amount set in the letter of admission within the prescribed deadline.

.....
Place, date

.....
Signature

If not signed and not accompanied by requested documents, the application shall be deemed not submitted! Please do not send original documents or certificates!

We prefer to receive documents via email. Please submit your application to T4SD@unige.ch.