Information for Applicants Taking FTI Entrance Exams for the 2019-2020 Academic Year

The Faculty of Translation and Interpreting will hold entrance exams for certain active (A) languages and certain degree programmes in Geneva and in other selected cities: Mexico City (Mexico) or Buenos Aires (Argentina); Boston (USA); Tunis (Tunisia) and Alexandria (Egypt) or Beirut (Lebanon).

Only applicants with the following active (A) languages will be able to take the exams in these cities:

- English
- Arabic
- Spanish

Dates of the entrance exams: April 23-25, 2019

Mexico City (Mexico) or Buenos Aires (Argentina), April 23-25, 2019

Active language: Spanish
Entrance exams for:
- BA in Multilingual Communication
- MA in Translation

Boston (USA), April 23-25, 2019

Active languages: English and Spanish
Entrance exams for:
- BA in Multilingual Communication (Spanish)
- MA in Translation (English and Spanish)

Tunis (Tunisia) and Alexandria (Egypt) or Beirut (Lebanon), April 23-25, 2019

Active language: Arabic
Entrance exams for:
- BA in Multilingual Communication
- MA in Translation

In Geneva, the entrance exams will be held from April 23rd to 25th, 2019 for the BA in Multilingual Communication and the MA in Translation only. The written exams for the MA in Conference Interpreting will be held from March 1st to 4th, 2019.

Interested applicants should indicate their preference on the online registration platform by January 31st, 2019 at the latest.

Important

FTI reserves the right to cancel entrance exams in certain cities depending on the number of applicants registered. Information regarding the decision made for each city will be posted on the FTI website in February 2019. Applicants affected by eventual cancellations will be invited to take their exams in Geneva or in another city on the list.

For further information, please contact the student secretariat:
Ms. Marie-Laure Cudet
Tel. +41 (0)22 379 87 08
Marie-laure.Cudet@unige.ch