

UNIVERSITÉ DE GENÈVE

FACULTÉ DE TRADUCTION
ET D'INTERPRÉTATION

Documents you need to prepare and upload to apply to the BA in Multilingual Communication

- An up-to-date CV in your A language.
- A letter of motivation in your A language.
- A copy of all your secondary education grades and diplomas you have obtained.
- Certificates or proof of any stays abroad that may enhance your profile.
- Any recognised language certificates or diplomas for each request to be exempt from a B language test (see exemption conditions for the B language tests).»).

For your application, please provide a translation in French or English (from your school, university or other official organisation) of your final grades or diplomas if they are not written in any of the following languages: French, German, Italian or English..

A copy of the documents in the original language must be included in your application.