

GENEVA HERITAGE LAB

EVENTS AND UPDATES

Coming up in 2024:

- Representing the University of Geneva in the Coimbra network, we sought to spearhead conversations on difficult heritage (check out the video). This is now leading to an exciting joint publication scheduled for 2024 with contributions from across Europe.
- We hope to continue engaging with UNIGE on heritage policy matters.
- With Ukrainian colleagues we're looking into reproducing the Swiss exhibition in 7 museums in Ukraine.
- Specific research and publications in the making.
- Further collaborative activities in Geneva.

2023 led to many important RESULTS:

- Exhibition implemented by Geneva Heritage Lab in cooperation with the Luhansk Regional Museum and partners has been very well-received and visited by many students, the wider public including the Ukrainian community in Geneva.
- Collaboration with the Maison de l'histoire in organizing a round table on the topic of university collections.

PUBLICATIONS:

- Reprendre dans la guerre (Orlovska, Larsen and Milovanova, eds)
- Governing Heritage and Creativity, Graezer Bideau and Larsen eds, (2023).
- Cultural rights after Mondiacult, (Swiss Commission for UNESCO).

VISITING SCHOLARS:

- During the year, we benefited from visiting scholars including Feng Sun and Valeria Mendez.
