

Curriculum Vitae

Chloe Baruffa, PhD Candidate

Current Position

Since 2019 PhD Candidate and teaching assistant – Environmental Governance and Territorial Development Group, Institute of Environmental Sciences, Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Geneva

Education

M.Sc. 2017-2019 Università degli Studi di Padova (Italy), Katholieke Universiteit Leuven (Belgium), Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne (France) – Erasmus Mundus Masters in Sustainable Territorial Development.

Masters' dissertation title "Governing transnational mountain areas: opportunities and challenges of the European Strategy for the Alpine Region to mitigate environmental changes in the Alps"

B.A. 2013-2017 McGill University – Undergraduate Degree in Political Sciences (First Class Honors GPA 3.74, Minor concentration in Russian)

Professional experience

2019 Mountain governance public policy intern – Ministère à l'Egalité des Territoires (France)

- Preparation of the 2020 French presidency of the European Strategy for the Alpine Region
- Administrative secretariat of the Conseil National de la Montagne
- Supervision of the implementation of the Loi Montagne
- National coordination of territorial teams Commissariats de Massif

2016-2017 Lead project manager in a consulting company in management and team performance (Canada)

- Coordination of large-scale training and management projects
- Supervision of the work of an intern

Teaching activities

2019 Co-organizer and assistant for the "Alpine Environment Workshop" – weeklong interdisciplinary fieldwork for the students of the master's in environmental sciences, University of Geneva

"Introduction to interdisciplinary studies" Prof. Plagnat and Prof. Stoffel

2020 "Societies and sustainable development" Prof. Balsiger
Gave a 6hr class entitled "Introduction to the multi-scalar governance of sustainable development"

Participation in field workshops

2017 Delta Del Po residential seminar on sustainable food production (Italy)

2018 Mato Grosso do Sul Winter seminar on sustainable territorial development: challenges in agriculture and tourism (Brazil)