

24 May 2019 | 09:00-17:30
GLOBALIZED HERITAGE IN ASIA:
REGIONAL ARTICULATIONS, SILENCES, CONTESTATIONS

An international conference at the Confucius Institute
266 rte de Lausanne - 1292 Chambésy

Organized by Dr Peter Bille Larsen (UNIGE, GEDT) and
Pascale Bugnon (UNIGE, Institut Confucius)

Free of charge, limited seats
Registration by 20 May:

ic@unige.ch / 022 379 07 30

unige.ch/ic

SPEAKERS

BOULEAU Christophe, Aga Khan Trust for Culture
Conserving the Lahore Fort Picture Wall, Pakistan

BUGNON Pascale, UNIGE, Institut Confucius
"The Stones speak" but what do they say? Some reflections on Muslim heritage in Quanzhou, Fujian (China)

FENG Jing, UNESCO/WHC
Safeguarding World's Cultural Heritage along the Silk Roads to promote sustainable development and sustainable tourism

GRAEZER BIDEAU Florence, EPFL, CDH
Historic urban landscape as an opportunity for change? Evidence from Beijing

JO Eugene, ICCROM
Glorifying heritage of the distant past in its original form: the distorted development of the intangible heritage system in Korea

KUNIK Damien, MEG
The shifting motives of "heritage-making" processes in Japan

LARSEN Peter Bille, UNIGE, GEDT
World Heritage proliferation and hierarchies of value in Vietnam: the case of Phong Nha Ke Bang

MATEOC Raluca, UNIFR
"Hidden Christian Sites in the Nagasaki Region": Heritage Imaginations as Modes of Existence

MILBERT Isabelle, IHEID
Ambiguities and contradictions of heritage management in Indian large metropolises: the case of Lucknow (Uttar Pradesh)

PORCHET Pierrick, UNIGE, Institut Confucius
Between local transmission and national heritage: process of heritage making in Guangfu "taiji township"

ZHANG Rouran, Nankai University
Benefits or Burdens? Stakeholders' Perception of World Heritage Nomination and Management in Libo Karst World Nature Heritage Site, China