LATIN AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION COURSE (LAIAC)

BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA, JULY 20 – 31, 2020

unige.ch/genevasummerschools
LATIN AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION COURSE (LAIAC)

• What? A 2-week highly specialized course providing a complete overview of key concepts of international commercial and investment arbitration.

• For Whom? For lawyers in private practice and in-house counsels, government and public sector officials wishing to develop their arbitration knowledge, advocacy skills, and international background; post-graduate law students and PhD candidates.

• By Whom? Both by leading practitioners and scholars from the region and worldwide.

• Why? To acquire a general understanding of procedural and substantive matters in commercial and investment arbitration. Gain in depth practical knowledge in specialized sectors of international arbitration, such as construction and sports. Learn practical advocacy and drafting skills from leading practitioners.

Fees: General: USD 2'000, Government Officials: USD 1'600, Students: USD 1'200

Deadline: 15 April, 2020

Contact: info.laiac@cids.ch

For more information, please visit our website: unige.ch/genevasummerschools