

| Full Name                      | Title of project  | Country        | Academic affiliation   |
|--------------------------------|---|----------------|--|
| Si Chen                        | A Socio-Legal Approach to the Governance of Labour Rights in Transnational Spheres: A Study of Chinese Mining Investment in Southern Africa                               | Canada         | Faculty of Law, McGill University                                |
| Julia Croce                    | The Role of Small and Medium-Sized Enterprise in Building Democracy in Fragile Countries  | Switzerland    | Geneva School of Economics and Management, University of Geneva  |
| Alison Holm                    | Constructive conflict in issue fields: A study of conflict resolution in the field of business and human rights   | Portugal       | Copenhagen Business School                                       |
| Samantha Hopkins               | How do corporations engage with their own relationship with harm through acknowledgement and denial?  | Ireland        | Queen's University Belfast                                       |
| Justin Jos Poonjatt            | Missing Chances: Remedies, National Action Plan And India's Story Of Business And Human Rights  | Australia      | Australian Human Rights Institute, University of New South Wales |
| Anthony Kapeta                 | The extraterritorial obligation to protect Human Rights in the context of Transnational Corporation activities: A critical analysis of the OECD National Contact Points). | DRC            | International Law Center of Nanterre, Paris Nanterre University  |
| Cynthia Kwakyewah              | Corporate human rights abuses in Ghana's extractive industries: Uncovering patterns and trends  | United Kingdom | Oxford University  |
| Gabriela Navarro               | Measuring the Effectiveness of the Inter-American System of Human Rights: the Case of Indigenous Territorial Rights   | Germany        | Johann Wolfgang Goethe Universität Frankfurt                     |
| Michael Rogerson               | The UK Modern Slavery Act 2015: can the professions stimulate action?   | United Kingdom | School of Management, University of Bath                         |
| Stefanie Triefus               | Do foreign investors have a responsibility not to challenge human rights measures via investor- state dispute settlement?   | Netherlands    | School of Law, Erasmus University Rotterdam                      |
| Emma van den Terrell           | Business, Human Rights and German Due Diligence: An ethical analysis of the German Supply Chain Law Debate  | Germany        | Wittenberg Center for Global Ethics                              |
| Stephanie Villadiego de la Hoz | "The 'Hardening' of Multinational Corporations' Responsibility" under the supervision of professor Emmanuelle Reuter.   | Switzerland    | Université de Neuchâtel  |