

Practical information

Venue

Building "Science II"
Quai Ernest-Ansermet 30
1205 Genève

Building "Unimail"
Bd du Pont d'Arve 40
1205 Genève

Participation is free, no registration required.

Organized by the University of Geneva, School of Social Sciences (SdS) and Global Studies Institute (GSI) and University of London, Queen Mary School of Law.

Contact:

Sandra.Lavenex@unige.ch

The Global Compact on International Migration: Towards More Humane and Coordinated Global Governance?

Interactive Workshop (14h15 – 17h30)
Public Round Table (18h15 – 20h00)

"Migrant holding Monopoly pieces in Patras". Photo: Alberto Campi/We Report

University of Geneva, 18 May 2017

PROGRAM

Part One:

Interactive Workshop 14.15 – 17.30

Room SCII223, Building "Science II"

Format: 10 minute inputs followed by in depth discussion with the negotiators, IO and NGO representatives on desirable outcomes of the Global Compact process in terms of steps towards better governance

Session 1: 14h15 – 14h45 (Chair: Sandra Lavenex, University of Geneva)

1. Mobility or migration: how does migration governance distinguish between the two and what contributes to safe, orderly and regular migration?
Elspeth Guild, Queen Mary University, London
2. The securitization of mobility: integrated border management and migration governance;
Stephan Davidshofer, University of Geneva
3. Privacy, data protection, sensitive biometric data and global migration governance;
Didier Bigo, King's College London and Science Po, Paris

14h45 – 15h15 Discussion

Session 2: 15h15 – 15h45 (Chair: Elspeth Guild, Queen Mary University, London)

4. Human rights and global migration governance;
Vincent Chetail, Graduate Institute, Geneva
5. Readmission agreements and global migration governance;
Marion Panizzon, University of Bern
6. The Right to Leave and the Limits for 'Safe, Orderly and Regular' Migration Schemes
Violeta Moreno-Lax, Queen Mary University, London

15h45 – 16h15 Discussion, 16h15 – 16h40 Coffee Break

Session 3: 16h40 – 17h10 (Chair: Stefan Davidshofer, University of Geneva)

7. Implementing the Migration Compact: The role of IOM and migration management
Younès Ahouga, University of Geneva
8. Regional integration and migration governance
Sandra Lavenex, University of Geneva
9. The Global Compact: Answer to which question?
Christina Oelgemoller, Loughborough University

17h10 – 17h30 Discussion and Conclusion

Part Two:

Public Round Table 18h15 – 20h00

Room MS160, Building "Unimail"

Format: Representatives of the leading International Organizations discuss their priorities in the preparation of the Global Compact in view of a more humane and coordinated global governance of migration

Participants: Representatives of ILO (Ryszard Cholewinski), IOM (Michele Klein-Solomon), UNHCR (Ellen Hansen), OHCHR (Pia Oberoi), NGOs (TBC) and of negotiating parties (TBC)