

June 20, 2014

Workshop | 09:30 - 16:00

Confucius Institute at the University of Geneva
266, route de Lausanne

Communication and Spreading of Medical Knowledge in China and the West

ZHAO XIURONG
Renmin University of China

An Investigation into "the Moral Treatment" practiced at the York Retreat in England

MARK HARRISON
University of Oxford

Conceptualizing medical encounters between China and the West

ZHANG DAQING
Peking University

The transmission of a brave new technique: The testis transplantation in early 20th century China

GAO XI
Fudan University

Medical knowledge and anatomy in 19th century China

MICHELINE LOUIS-COURVOISIER
University of Geneva

*Medical vulgarization: stakes, debates and hidden agenda.
The case of SA Tissot*

LUCIA CANDELISE
University of Geneva

Chinese medical practices in Europe, the French, Italian and Swiss situations

INSTITUT CONFUCIUS

FACULTÉ DE MÉDECINE

INSTITUT ÉTHIQUE HISTOIRE HUMANITÉS

UNIVERSITÉ DE GENÈVE

WORKSHOP | THURSDAY, JUNE 20 | 9:30 - 16:00

Communication and Spreading of Medical Knowledge in China and the West

- 09:30-10:00 Prof. ZHAO XIURONG (Renmin University of China)
An Investigation into “the Moral Treatment” practiced at the York Retreat in England
- 10:00-10:30 Prof. MARK HARRISON (University of Oxford)
Conceptualizing medical encounters between China and the West
- 10:30-11:00 Discussion
- 11:00-11:30 Prof. ZHANG DAQING (Peking University)
The transmission of a brave new technique: The testis transplantation in early 20th century China
- 11:30-12:00 Prof. GAO XI (Fudan University)
Medical knowledge and the anatomy in 19th century China
- 12:00-12:30 Discussion
- 12:30-14:00 Lunch break
- 14:00-14:30 Prof. MICHELINE LOUIS-COURVOISIER (University of Geneva)
Medical vulgarization: stakes, debates and hidden agenda. The case of SA Tissot
- 14:30-15:00 Dr. LUCIA CANDELISE (University of Geneva)
Chinese medical practices in Europe, the French, Italian and Swiss situations
- 15:00-16:00 Round table discussion