

Scotism in the Reformation Era: Historical and Historiographical Questions

Geneva, September 9 to 11, 2024

Final Program

Monday, September 9 (CMU, Room S4-S5)

14:15-14:30 Conference Opening

14:30-15:15 Giovanni Gellera (Geneva): Scotisms

15:15-16:00 Vitali Ivanov (Tel Aviv): Quaestio de prima divisione entis in G. Zerbi et A. Trombetta: How does the Scotist Tradition of Metaphysics Work?

Coffee break

16:30-17:15 Claus A. Andersen (Louvain-la-Neuve): Thomist Formalities: A Neglected Aspect of Scotist Influence in the 16th Century

18:00 Keynote I

Simon Burton (Edinburgh): The Scotist Impulse in Reformed Metaphysics: From Christian Philosophy to Scientia Transcendens

19:00 Evening reception (organized by the conference)

Tuesday, September 10 (CMU, Room S4-S5)

9:30-10:15 Arthur Huiban (Geneva): Medieval Legacy: Methodological Considerations

10:15-11:00 Caleb Abraham (Lausanne): "Comment sera-ce messieurs les Scotistes ?" Jean Ménard's (d. 1570) Polemical Use of Scotus and Scotists in Two Vernacular Theological Treatises on the Sacraments

Coffee break

11:30-12:15 Matthew Baines (Sydney): Scotist Aesthetics in the Reformation Era: Soundings in William Ames (1576–1633), Gisbertus Voetius (1589–1676) and Paul Voetius (1619–1667)

Free lunch

- 14:30-15:15    Nicola Milanesi (Paris/Salerno): From Scotus to Suárez via Fonseca. The Scotist Conception of Matter in Jesuitic Counter-Reformation
- 15:15-16:00    Francesco Pica (Toronto): Helping Scotus Decide: Fabri and Vulpes on Scotus's Synthesis of the Aristotelian and Augustinian Views of Intellectual Cognition.
- 16:15-17:00    Francesco Fiorentino (Bari – on Zoom): Claude Frassen on Divine Ideas in the Scene of Scotism
- 18:00            Keynote II
Richard Cross (Notre Dame): Seventeenth-Century Debates on Divine Omnipresence, and Their Background in Aquinas and Scotus
- 20:00            Dinner at the restaurant «Il Carosello» (organized by the conference)

Wednesday, September 11 (CMU, Room D6o)

- 9:30-10:15    Guus Labooy (IJsselmuiden): Theory of Atonement: Scotist Tools in John Owen's Analysis of the Attribution of Guilt
- 10:15-11:00    Zachary Seals (Geneva): Johann Heidegger's (1633-1698) Reformed Scotism: The Beatific Vision in Systematic Theology
- Coffee break*
- 11:30-12:15    Pieter Rouwendal (Apeldoorn): Comrie and Holtius on Supralapsarian Christology and Predestination (1756)
- 12:15-12:45    Concluding Remarks

The conference can be followed on Zoom:
<https://unige.zoom.us/j/66462021018>
(same link for all three days)