Please press "Load stock data" when you start. Once done you won't need to press it anymore as the app will react to change in parameters.

This section allows you to see the output of the backfilling process if you compare the tables below based on corresponding date and company symbol:

- Original historical Returns
- Backfilled returns table

---

Please press "Load stock data" when you start. Once done you won't need to press it anymore as the app will react to change in parameters.

This section allows you to see the output of the backfilling process if you compare the tables below based on corresponding date and company symbol:

- Original historical Returns
- Backfilled returns table