- The exams must be passed on the dates published by the Faculty/Institute.

- Suggestion: improve your French before going on your exchange by taking Intensive French courses before the semester starts.
Specific information & restrictions by Faculty

FACULTÉ DE DROIT
Faculty of Law

Access to courses - bachelor or master - is restricted to students already registered in Law in their home university. Bachelor of law students are allowed to attend Master courses.

Students registered for the Certificate in Transnational Law: the students must have completed at least 2 years (or 120 ECTS) in legal studies. For the Certificate in Transnational Law, it is necessary to register at the Faculty of Law, in addition to registering online. Please complete the form (see the following link) and send it to the contact mentioned: www.unige.ch/droit/transnational/admission/admissionB.html

FACULTÉ DES LETTRES
Faculty of Humanities

For students who wish to take French Literature courses, we strongly recommend a C1 French level.

Exchange students can create their own study plan. Four ECTS credits are awarded for each semester-long course, seminar or course-seminar that is successfully completed (evaluated and graded). The above conditions apply only to exchange students.

ÉCOLE DE LANGUE ET DE CIVILISATION FRANÇAISES (ELCF)
School of French Language and Civilization

The ELCF is part of the Faculty of Humanities and offers several programmes: www.unige.ch/lettres/elcf/fr/presentation/#toc1

The propedeutic year in French as a foreign language is available with a B1 French level. It is possible to combine this programme with courses from other Faculties of the University of Geneva.

FACULTÉ DES SCIENCES
Faculty of Sciences

Please consult the Faculty website: http://www.unige.ch/sciences/index.html

Procedure to establish the learning agreement/Study plan February 2017
Online Procedure for Study Plan

- The complete course catalogue is available here: www.unige.ch/progcours
- The students need to take into account all the previous information in order to complete the list of the courses they would like to take.
- The list of the courses needs to be done according to our course catalogue respecting the restrictions. For the students coming for the Fall Semester or for the whole academic year, they have to base their choices with the current catalogue.

Some change can occur. The final study plan will be revised once you are in Geneva with your academic advisor.

During the online registration, students have to fill in online a list of the courses respecting this form:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CODE</th>
<th>Faculty-Name of the course</th>
<th>Hours</th>
<th>Credits (ECTS)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

In our course catalogue:

- CR and SE indicate the nature of the course (CR: course; SE: seminar; TP: travaux pratiques).
- The letters A/P/AN indicate in what semester the course is available.
  - A = Course offered only during the Fall (automne) semester
  - P = Course offered only during the Spring (printemps) semester
  - AN = Course offered only annually (année). It is a year-long course so it is closed for exchange students staying only one semester.
  - Ve 12-14 indicates the course’s schedule.
  - M S150 indicates the classroom. The first letter is for the building (Uni Mail).

Exemple:

| S102015 | Introduction to Microeconomics | GSEM | CR 2h A Ve 12-14, M S150 | 6 |

The course «Introduction to Microeconomics» is given by the GSEM during the Fall semester, Friday (Ve: Vendredi) from noon to 2pm (12-14) in the building Uni-Mail, room M S150. The course is credited with 6 ECTS.
