The English Department’s Writing Lab

• The Writing Lab is an individual tutorial service provided for those who seek to improve their written English. It is available to all students in the department, from the first year to the master’s level.

SERVICES PROVIDED

• Tutors review the skills necessary for writing English academic essays.

• Meetings often cover structural elements, such as formulating thesis statements, constructing paragraphs, and organizing the essay. They also deal with writing techniques, including how to make smooth transitions and choose an appropriate register.

• Tutors do not evaluate the merit of arguments or help students analyse, nor do they proofread papers.

• The services of the Writing Lab are not available to students outside of the English Department of the University of Geneva.

LECTURE
Wednesday 5th April, 16:15, PHIL 204
Indira Ghose, Professor emeritus from the University of Fribourg, will give a lecture on the topic of Will, Humour, and Reality, as part of the CUSO Doctoral Workshop in Medieval and Early Modern English Studies organized by Prof. Guillaume Bolens & Prof. Lukas Erne.

BOOK CLUB
The AELIA’s Book Club takes place once a month on Thursdays at 18:15 in PHIL 002. The remaining meetings this semester are as follows:
- May 11th: Neil Gaiman’s The Ocean at the End of the Lane (2013)
During our meetings, we drink tea and eat cookies while talking about our chosen book of the month. The books we will be reading during the rest of this semester include Douglas Adams’ The Hitchhiker’s Guide to the Galaxy and Neil Gaiman’s The Ocean at the End of the Lane. Our goal is to create a fun and welcoming environment in which students from the English department can read books outside of class and discuss them as a group.

WORKSHOP
Wednesday 5th May, 16:15, PHIL 204
Professor Pascale Aebischer, Dr. Jo Eira, and Dr. Victoria Sparck from the University of Exeter will lead a workshop on Types of Error. This event is part of the Geneva-Exeter Renaissance Exchange, led by Emily Smith and subsidised by the Joint Sweat Money Funding Scheme promoting cooperation between the University of Geneva and the University of Exeter, and of the CUSO Doctoral Workshop in Medieval and Early Modern English Studies organized by Prof. Guillaume Bolens & Prof. Lukas Erne.

WORKSHOP
Monday 15th May, 18:15-18:00, Uni-Doraz 1365
As part of the CUSO doctoral workshop in Modern and Contemporary Literature on Philosophy by Other Means, Professor Robert B. Pippin of the University of Chicago will give a lecture on The Problem of Truth in Nouvelli and Cinema, focusing on the work of Robert Bresson. The lecture will be preceded
