DRAMA AND LITERATURE ONLINE

In order to compensate for the fact that the theatres are closed (and this is not a decree of the Puritan Commonwealth of the 1640s), some theatres are offering access to their productions online, for free. The following link takes you to London's National Theatre Youtube channel, where you have direct access to high quality theatre in English. Why not get a group of friends or colleagues together on a teleconferencing programme, do a screen share for the play, and have a virtual night out at the theatre!
