CUSO TRAVELLING SEMINAR

Wednesday 1st April, 16.15—18.45, room A210

Dr David Matthews (University of Manchester) will lead a workshop on 'Fame and Oblivion: Remembering Middle English Texts after Reform'. It will consider texts from the Middle Ages which were reproduced in the Tudor period and Tudor texts which reflect on the Middle Ages. The workshop will be preceded by a lecture from Dr Matthews on 'Sir Gawain and the Green Knight: History, Narrative, Description', in the same room at 14.15.

SAUTE CONFERENCE

Friday 24th—Saturday 25th April, University of Geneva

The biennial conference of the Swiss Association of University Teachers of English (SAUTE) will take place in Geneva. Economies of English will be a chance to reflect on the connections between money and value embedded in all our discourses about economy, language, and literature. Guest speakers include Marc Shell (Harvard University), John Joseph (University of Edinburgh), Laura Brown (Cornell University), and Stefan Collini (University of Cambridge).

CUSO WORKSHOP

Sunday 26th April, University of Geneva

Laura Brown (Cornell University) and Stefan Collini (University of Cambridge) will lead a workshop on The Changing Value of English Studies. This workshop aims to make PhD students (and the rest of us) reflect on the value of individual and collective research projects in the context of the seemingly constant crisis of the universities, and the frequent “turns” and “paradigm shifts” in the discipline of English studies.
