

OCTOBER 2015

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT BULLETIN

dates, information, reminders

WRITING LAB

Thursday, 1st October, room CO 213

The Writing Lab will reopen on the 1st October. The sign-up sheet is located on the door of the lab. Please remember to bring a piece of written work to your appointment—a brainstorm, an outline, a thesis statement, a paragraph, or the rough draft of a paper.

VISITING SPEAKER

Wednesday, 7th October, 16.15--18.45, room A 210

As part of the CUSO Doctoral Workshop in Medieval and Early Modern English Studies, Prof. Andrew Hadfield (University of Sussex) will give a workshop on 'Thomas Nashe and the Morality Tradition'. The workshop will explore the vexed relationship between Thomas Nashe's complicated and provocative prose writings—Pierce Peniless His Supplication to the Divell (1592), Christ's Tears Over Jerusalem (1593), and The Unfortunate Traveller (1594)—and the Christian morality tradition.

STUDY ABROAD

Thursday 8th October, 18.15, room B 111

The English department strongly encourages its students to spend some time in an English speaking country. This session will provide information on the different options that exist for a stay abroad: Swiss-European Mobility Programme (SEMP)—formerly known as Erasmus; other exchange programmes; language assistantships. All students of the English department are invited to attend.

FILM CLUB

Thursdays, 19.15, room B 112

Highlights this month include a special Halloween screening of Back to the Future II on the 29th.

- 8th October Star Trek: Into Darkness
- 22nd October The Island of Doctor Moreau
- 29th October Back to the Future II
