States of Affairs
Medieval and Austro-German Perspectives
Geneva, 25-27 May 2023

PROGRAMME

Thursday, 25 May 2023

15:00-15:15   Welcome

Session 1
15:15-16:00   Susan Brower-Toland (Saint Louis University)
How Things Are: Ockham on States of Affairs

16:00-16:45   Q&A

16:45-17:15   Pause

Session 2
17:15-18:00   John Marenbon (University of Cambridge)
Medieval Facts — or Fictions?

18:00-18:45   Q&A

Friday, 26 May 2023 – Morning

Session 3
09:00-09:45   Alexandra Anisie (Babes-Bolyai University)
Avoiding Realism: some late 14th century thinkers on the significates of propositions

09:45-10:30   Q&A

10:30-11:00   Pause

Session 4
11:00-11:45   Richard Gaskin (University of Liverpool)
Objects and States of Affairs in Wittgenstein's Tractatus

11:45-12:30   Q&A

Friday, 26 May 2023 – Afternoon

Session 5
14:30-15:15   Bo Meinertsen (University of Sheffield)
                   Instantiation as an External Relation

15:15-16:00   Q&A

16:00-16:30   Pause

Session 6
16:30-17:15   Johannes Brandl (Universität Salzburg)
                   Does Judgement depend on Predication? An Unorthodox Defense of Brentano's Theory of Judgement

17:15-18:00   Q&A

Saturday, 27 May 2023

Session 7
09:00-09:45   Ingrid Vendrell-Ferran (Universität Marburg)
                   Value Objectivism and Feeling in Landmann-Kalischer and Meinong

09:45-10:30   Q&A

10:30-10:45   Pause

Session 8
10:45-11:30   Benjamin Schnieder (Universität Wien)
                   Why Bolzano Needs no States of Affairs

11:30-12:15   Q&A

With comments by

Laurent Cesalli (Brower-Toland)   Paolo Natali (Meinertsen)
Enrico Donato (Marenbon)   Arkadiusz Chrudzimski (Brandl)
Davide Falessi (Anisie)   Guillaume Fréchette (Vendrell-Ferran)
Romain Büchi (Gaskin)   Hamid Taieb (Schnieder)