

MEDICAL ONTOLOGY

An interdisciplinary IRIS (Science, Vie, Société) colloquium

Friday, June 27, 2003

HUG, 2, rue des Acacias, 7th floor

- 9.00-10.30 Barry Smith (Leipzig/Buffalo)
Problems of Medical Ontology
- 11.00 – 12.30 Robert Baud (Geneva)
Basic needs of Conceptual Attachments for Semantic Lexicons
- 14.00– 15.30 Werner Ceusters (Language and Computing)
Indexing medical documents using a large medico-linguistic ontology.
- 16.00 – 17.30 David Whitten (Veterans Administration Medical Center – Houston)
An Introduction to Ontology in Medical Informatics

Participants: Chuck Dement (Leeds), Christian Lovis (Division of Medical Informatics University Hospitals of Geneva), Peter Simons (Leeds)

Scientific committee: Robert Baud (Medicine, Geneva), Kevin Mulligan (Philosophy, Geneva), Barry Smith (Leipzig)