

Workshop: Prospects for Epistemology in Europe

The workshop will bring together epistemologists working in different universities across Europe and allow them to present and discuss their current research and their projects of cooperation. The conference is hosted by the Episteme group and the FNS project on Knowledge, Reasons and Norms of the Department of Philosophy, University of Geneva.

Programme

Friday, Sept 28th

- 14h-15h Erik Olsson (Lund), "The Generality Problem for Reliabilism Revisited"
- 15h-16h Igor Douven (KU Leuven), "Contextual Identity"
- coffee break
- 16h30-17h30 Duncan Pritchard (Edinburgh), "Relevant Alternatives, Perceptual Knowledge and Discrimination"

Saturday, Sept 29th

- 9h45 coffee
- 10h-11h Klemens Kappel (Copenhagen), "The Problem of the Value of Knowledge"
- 11h-12h Martijn Blaauw (VU Amsterdam), "Contra Constrativism"
- lunch
- 13h30-14h30 Pascal Engel (Geneva), "Belief and Normativity"