

INSTRUCTIONS FOR POSTING AN AD ON THE “MD-PHD UNIGE” PADLET

Are you an MD-PhD thesis supervisor looking for an MD-PhD doctoral student, or are you a student looking for an MD-PhD thesis supervisor?

Post your ad on this PADLET, which is accessible to everyone, to get in touch and start an MD-PhD collaboration!

1) Go to this link

<https://padlet.com/unige/annonces-md-phd-unige-my0lze44r4xnf8i?lang=fr>

(If you want to create a PADLET account, you can do so, otherwise you can continue the process as an external user).

2) Click on the “+” icon in the lower right corner

3) This screen will then open

Enter the title of your ad

For example:

- “Candidate seeks MD-PhD thesis advisor in neurosurgery”
- “MD-PhD student seeks project on the impact of porto-systemic shunts on hepatocellular carcinoma”

If you wish, insert a document.

For example, students seeking an MD-PhD supervisor can insert their CV.

Provide relevant details about your research in this space.

For example, for students:

“As a recent medical graduate (202X, University of XXX) with practical experience in XXX (e.g., XXX), I am particularly interested in pursuing an MD-PhD, ideally in the following fields: XXX, which could begin as early as XX.XX.202X. I am therefore looking for a thesis supervisor in the above-mentioned fields. I can be reached at the following email address: namefirstname@xxxxxx.com.”

By clicking here, you can change the background color of your ad if you wish.

4) Publish your ad

By clicking on the “publish” or “send” button

5) This screen will then open

Une dernière chose,

6) Your ad will then appear on the PADLET page as "pending approval."

This means that it must first be read and verified by the PADLET administrator. Once the administrator has approved it, your ad will automatically appear on PADLET, and anyone interested in responding to you will be able to contact you directly by email if you have included your email address in the ad, or leave a comment on your ad.

⚠ If you do not have a PADLET account, you will not receive email notifications telling you that someone has commented on your ad. You will therefore need to check PADLET regularly to see if other users have left comments on your ad.
