

Confidentiality agreement – Synpsy Prize

The Synpsy Prize website complies with the data management policy of the University of Geneva (UNIGE): <https://memento.unige.ch/doc/0339>

The Synpsy Prize regulations are available here :

https://www.unige.ch/medecine/synapsycentre/application/files/8917/4350/2218/SynapsyPrize-Bylaw-Official-07022025_ocr.pdf

In the context of the Synpsy Prize, the Synpsy Center will collect data via an online form.

The data collected are :

- Last name, first name: text
- Title, position: text
- Country of current institution: text
- Number of years of career: radio button
- professional e-mail: e-mail
- business address: text
- Summary of the main scientific achievements and current research activities : text
- Sentence summarizing the major contribution of the candidate(s) : text
- Sentence summarizing the impact of the candidate(s)'s work beyond their specific field of research including mentoring activities : text
- Online CV's nominee, or webpage, if possible : URL
- List of publications : URL

These data are stored on UNIGE servers in Switzerland. They will be accessible to the jury members mentioned on the Prize page. They will not be passed on to third parties or exported outside of UNIGE.

The data will be deleted in their entirety after the award of the Prize, by the end of December 2025 at the latest.

If you do not wish your collected data to be used in connection with the Synpsy Prize, please contact the Synpsy center: centre-synapsy@unige.ch, and we will delete the data.