

UNIVERSITÉ DE GENÈVE

GENEVA CENTRE
FOR PHILANTHROPY

International colloquium « Taxation and philanthropy »
Organized by the Geneva Centre for Philanthropy, University of Geneva
26-27 November 2020
Geneva, Switzerland

Preliminary programme

The timing of the conference events may be subject to modifications

DAY 1 (26 November 2020)

PRE-COLLOQUIUM EVENT

9h00 - 12h00: Workshop of junior scholars

BRAINSTORMING SESSION

14h30 – 16h30: Experts' brainstorming session on selected topics

PUBLIC CONFERENCE, 18h15-19h45

18h15: Welcome by Prof. Yves Flückiger, Rector of the University

Introduction by Prof. Henry Peter, Head of the GCP

Keynote speech : Mr. Pascal Saint-Amans, Director of the Centre for Tax Policy and Administration, OECD

18h50: Questions and panel discussion

19h30: Fondation Lombard Odier Prize for Academic Excellence in Philanthropy, Prize ceremony for the best papers

19h45: End of the Conference

20h00: Dinner with speakers, experts and guests

DAY 2 (27 November 2020)

ACADEMIC WORKSHOPS

8h30: Workshop 1: Are tax incentives for philanthropy justified?

10h00: Break

10h30: Workshop 2: Which types of tax incentives for philanthropic activities are conceivable and what is their respective efficiency?

12h00: Lunch

13h30: Workshop 3: Cross-border philanthropy and tax barriers: should they be eliminated?

15h00: Break

15h30: Workshop 4: What is the role of tax incentives in corporate philanthropy and social entrepreneurship?

17h00: Closing

17h30: Post-conference social programme

Geneva, 29 May 2020