

UNIVERSITÉ
DE GENÈVE

GENEVA SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Paul Bairoch Institute of Economic History

UNIVERSITÉ
DE GENÈVE

MAISON DE L'HISTOIRE

Schweizerischer Nationalfonds
Fonds national suisse
Fondo nazionale svizzero
Swiss National Science Foundation

Workshop: International Monetary Cooperation in History

20 May 2022

University of Geneva

Paul Bairoch Institute of Economic History

Geneva, Switzerland

Uni Mail, Room M6220

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

9h15-9h30: Welcome – Jean-Michel Bonvin (Vice dean of the School of Social Sciences, University of Geneva)

Introductory session

9h30-10h45

SNF Project's presentation: " Building a New World Economic Order. International monetary cooperation and the making of the Bretton Woods, 1931-1945" (Juan Flores Zendejas, Gianandrea Nodari)

Comments by Scientific Advisory Committee of the project, including Graciela Márquez (El Colegio de México), Marc Flandreau (University of Pennsylvania) and Catherine Schenk (University of Oxford)

The functioning of the British Exchange Equalization Account
Gabriel Leitner (University of Geneva)

Discussant: Nathan Sussman (Graduate Institute)

10h45-coffee

Second Session: International monetary cooperation in the 1930s

11h15-12h45

Gold and embedded liberalism: new perspectives on Bretton Woods
Eric Monnet (EHESS)

Discussant: Andreas Kakridis (Bank of Greece)

The Long Shadow of 1931. Banking regulation in the Bretton Woods Era - Online
Alexander Nützenadel (Humboldt University, Berlin)

Discussant: Catherine Schenk (University of Oxford)

12h45-14h Lunch

Keynote Speech: Rethinking the Legacy of Bretton Woods - Online

14h – 15h

Harold James (Princeton University)

Third Session: International monetary Cooperation: continuities and contrasts between the 1930s and the post -1945 period

15h-16h30

Central bank cooperation 1930-1932, a reappraisal

Juan Flores Zendejas and Gianandrea Nodari (University of Geneva)

Discussant: Piet Clement (Bank for International Settlements)

Blowing against the Wind? A Narrative Approach to Central Bank Foreign Exchange Intervention

Alan Naef (Bank of France)

Discussant: Gianandrea Nodari (University of Geneva)

16h30 Coffee

Forth Session: A global intellectual history of Bretton Woods

16h30-18h

Some Silences in the Embedded Liberalism of Bretton Woods- Online

Eric Helleiner (University of Waterloo)

Discussant: Marc Flandreau (University of Pennsylvania)

Concluding remarks (Juan Flores Zendejas and Gianandrea Nodari)

Dinner