

GIG ECONOMY AND ITS IMPLICATIONS FOR SOCIAL DIALOGUE AND WORKERS' PROTECTION
OUTCOMES FROM A CROSS-NATIONAL RESEARCH PROJECT

WORKSHOP, 13 DECEMBER 2019, 9:30 – 17:30

MORNING, ROOM M6220, UNI-MAIL BUILDING

9:30 – 9:45 | Opening remarks by Prof. Jean-Michel Bonvin (University of Geneva)

9:45 – 10:00 | «The ILO Decent Work Agenda and the challenges of the digital era» by Kostas Papadakis (ILO - Senior Social Dialogue and Governance Specialist)

10:00 – 11:00 | «Social partnership and the gig economy in Greece: continuities and discontinuities» by Maria Mexi (University of Geneva) and Eleni Greenwood (Diktio)
Discussant: Chris Land-Kazlauskas (ILO)

11:15 – 12:15 | «Collective bargaining, industry 4.0 and the impact of the gig economy: a way toward a social protection 4.0?» by Prof. Christian Lahusen and Johannes Kiess (University of Siegen)
Discussant: Mathias Wouters (KUL)

AFTERNOON, ROOM M6220, UNI-MAIL BUILDING

13:45 – 14:45 | «Working for whom? Dialogue, disagreement and the future of work in the UK gig economy» by Prof. Simone Baglioni and Tom Montgomery (Glasgow Caledonian University)
Discussant: Prof. Philip Balsiger (University of Neuchâtel)

15:00 – 16:00 | «How can social dialogue contribute to the enhancement of gig workers' rights?» Prof. Jean-Michel Bonvin, Nicola Cianferoni and Luca Perrig (University of Geneva)
Discussant: Prof. Kurt Pärli (University of Basel)

KEYNOTE, ROOM MR170, UNI-MAIL BUILDING

16:15 – 17:30 | «The rise of the gig economy and its impacts on the future of work»
Jamie Woodcock (The Open University)

*With the financial support of the Swiss Network for International Studies (SNIS)
Local organizing committee: J.-M. Bonvin, N. Cianferoni, M. Mexi, L. Perrig*