IV Geneva Graduate Conference in Political Philosophy

The Department of Political Science & International Relations of the University of Geneva is proud to announce the third edition of the Geneva Graduate Conference in Political Philosophy organized within the framework of the Geneva Colloquium in Political Theory (GECOPOL). The GECOPOL_Graduate will take place on 16-17 February 2023.

The GECOPOL_Graduate is structured in parallel sessions for students' presentations, and two plenary sessions hosting two keynote lectures. This year's keynote speakers are Anna Goppel (Universität Bern) Seth Lazar (Australian National University).

PhD students may express their interest in presenting papers at the GECOPOL_Graduate by sending an extended abstract of their intended contribution (max 1500 words – in English) accompanied by a short abstract (max 200 words – in English) and a curriculum vitae, by 30 October 2022. All correspondence (including paper submissions and additional inquiries) should be addressed to the GECOPOL_Graduate email address: gecopol@unige.ch.

Members who wish to share some news regarding their activities (e.g., publications, new professional appointments, job opportunities) may write an email to sptn@unige.ch.
