

ACCIDENT-MEDICAL EMERGENCY

1. Get help, dial 144

Give the following information:

- Who? Caller's name, phone number
- What? Events, circumstances leading to emergency, nature of problem
- Where? Exact location (full address, useful information about access)
- When? How long is it since the event?
- How Many? Number of casualties, nature of injuries
- Other info? Symptoms observed, help given, etc.

2. While waiting for help

- Observe and assess the situation
- Think and ensure your personal safety
- Act: evaluate injured persons' condition and provide first aid according to your skills. Ask witnesses to remain at scene of emergency.

WARNING: do not try to remove a foreign body from your eye or someone else's eye. Rather, consult an ophthalmologist.

3. Meet the emergency services and lead them to the scene
4. Dial 1222

EXPOSURE TO CHEMICALS

Intoxication

Medical Emergencies, Dial 145

For information concerning toxic substances and antidotes (Swiss toxicological information center)

Spills/physical contact

In eye

1. Rinse eye thoroughly with running water or with eye wash
2. Dial 144
3. Dial 1222

WARNING: do not try to remove a foreign body from your eye or someone else's eye. Rather, consult an ophthalmologist.

On skin or clothing

1. Remove soiled clothing
2. Rinse exposed body part thoroughly
3. Dial 144
4. Dial 1222

Emergency actions

FIRE 118

MEDICAL EMERGENCY 144

INTOXICATION 145

POLICE 117

INCIDENT 1222

UNIVERSITÉ
DE GENÈVE
SAINTÉ AU TRAVAIL, ENVIRONNEMENT
PRÉVENTION, SÉCURITÉ

FIRE OR EXPLOSION

1. Get help, dial 118

Fire Department - SIS

Or push

Fire alarm button

Give the following information:

- Who? Caller's name, phone number
- What? Events, circumstances leading to emergency, nature of problem
- Where? Exact location (full address, useful information about access)
- Other info? Measures taken, relevant info for firefighters

2. Act

- To save people is first priority
- If possible, begin to fight the fire
- Comply with any instruction given by the person in charge of safety

Call security on
1222 or 0041 22 379 1222

3. Meet the emergency services and lead them to the scene

The local safety instructions found in every building are to be studied BEFORE an incident actually occurs. They should be located, consulted regularly and followed.

EVACUATION

When the evacuation signal sounds

1. Follow instructions
2. Help your neighbors, when necessary
3. Close doors and windows
4. Take closest exit and go to assembly point

SECURITY EMERGENCY

- Assault, robbery, act of vandalism or serious threat in progress

Call the 117 police

- Unwelcome or troublesome person, or theft / act of vandalism which have been carried out

Call security on
1222 or 00 4122 379 1222

CHEMICAL, BIOLOGICAL OR RADIOACTIVE INCIDENT

In the event of spills, toxic or gas leaks, suspicious odors, etc.

1. Avoid exposure
2. Leave the premises rapidly
3. On your way out close doors and block access (e.g. in a corridor)
4. Call 1222 or 0041 22 379 1222
5. Meet the emergency services

Any other questions?

For further information about occupational health and safety, you may contact:

faculty of Sciences,
Raphaël MAION, 93163
faculty of Medicine,
Audrey MAGIEJEWSKI, 91058
all other faculties, administration
Anna-Sofia FERRO-LUZZI, 97751

Following every incident

Fill out the declaration form on line :
www.unige.ch/steps